BRAZIL’S LEADERSHIP IN HEALTH SCIENCES

THINKING GLOBALLY and ACTING LOCALLY

FEATURED SPEAKERS

ELIZABETH SOARES COELHO, MD, MPH

Dr. Soares is a graduate of the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro and a Board Certified Pulmonologist. Her research and program development for the Brazilian Public Health Ministry spans more than 30 years. She currently works on respiratory disease and clinical outreach for the Rio de Janeiro Health Secretariat.

FREDERICO PERES DA COSTA, PHD, MSC

Dr. Peres is deputy director of the School of Government in Health, a part of the National School of Public Health at the Oswaldo Cruz Foundation (Fiocruz). His research focuses on the application of risk perception and communication frameworks in the management of environmental health risks. He is a member of the New York Roundtable on Public Health Literacy.

THURSDAY
NOV 13
4 - 6PM 2014
WEST COMMONS, 220