

Affirmative Action in Brazil: From Quotas for Black Students to Quotas for Public School Students

a lecture by Dr. Sales Augusto dos Santos
Thursday, November 18, 2021 at 4:00 p.m. PST

Zoom ID: 828 5582 6135

Sales Augusto dos Santos holds a masters degree and doctorate in Sociology from the University of Brasília (UnB)/Brazil and completed post-doctoral research at the Department of African Studies at Brown University (2012-2013) and the Department of African & African Diaspora Studies (DAADS) at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee (UWM) (2019-2020). He is currently a Visiting Professor at the Federal University of Viçosa (UFV), Minas Gerais (MG)/Brazil, as well as Associate Researcher at the Afro-Brazilian Studies Nucleus (NEAB) of the University of Brasília (UnB)/Brazil. He coordinated the Publications Working Group of the Brazilian Association of Black Researchers (ABPN), from August 2008 to July 2010. He was also one of the Coordinators of the Violência em Manchete Series, from the National Movement of Human Rights (MNDH), from 1998 to 2002. He researches Brazilian race relations, specifically focusing on racial inequalities, affirmative action policies and Black social movements. He has published several books and numerous articles in Brazilian and international academic journals on these topics. He was the first Brazilian academic to receive the Martin Diskin Dissertation Award for best doctoral dissertation from the Latin American Studies Association (LASA), in 2009.

U.S. NETWORK
FOR DEMOCRACY
IN BRAZIL

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY
College of Education

Department of Africana Studies

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
MILWAUKEE

College of Letters & Science
Department of African and African Diaspora Studies

